

DENISE ANDREW

Vice President, Account Management

Denise Andrew is a strategic and results-driven leader in account management, dedicated to delivering flexible, client-focused solutions in the ever-evolving world of employee benefits. As Vice President of Account Management at Boon-Chapman, she plays a key role in leading the account team, ensuring clients receive innovative, cost-effective benefit strategies that align with their long-term goals.

With extensive experience—including time spent on the network, consultant, and claim software sides—Denise understands the challenges that employers and brokers face when designing and managing benefits programs. She brings a creative, solution-oriented mindset to every partnership, ensuring clients receive innovative, cost-effective strategies that enhance plan performance while keeping member needs at the forefront.

Denise thrives on collaboration, working across teams to ensure seamless execution and ongoing plan success. She values dependability, respect, teamwork, loyalty, and commitment, and these core principles guide her approach to fostering long-lasting relationships built on trust and measurable results.

Passionate about making benefits work smarter, Denise serves as a knowledge resource and strategic advisor, helping businesses navigate the complexities of employee benefits. Whether streamlining processes, enhancing cost savings, or improving member experiences, she is committed to helping clients stay ahead in an ever-changing industry.

Denise is here to help you find the right solutions for your evolving benefits needs.
