

KARI L. NIBLACK, JD, SPHR

President

Kari L. Niblack, Esq., joined Boon-Chapman as President in 2024, bringing with her 25 years of industry expertise to lead the company's continued growth and innovation in healthcare administration. Known for her ability to drive transformative change, Kari is committed to enhancing Boon-Chapman's reputation for unmatched client service, operational excellence, and customized healthcare solutions. Her leadership experience spans the self-insurance ecosystem, including claims administration, cost containment, and care navigation, making her an invaluable asset as Boon-Chapman expands its role as a trusted partner in healthcare solutions. In addition to her executive leadership roles spanning almost three decades in the self-funded industry, Kari regularly speaks and publishes on issues affecting self-funded health plans and served as Chairwoman, Board of Directors, of the Self-Insurance Institute of America.

Kari is a licensed attorney in both Indiana and Florida and a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR). She holds a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Indiana University and earned her JD degree from Nova Southeastern University's Shepard Broad Law Center in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She is well-known for her unconfined benefits consulting expertise and targeted interventions that strategically and operationally enhance health and wellbeing solutions for clients.

Kari is a member of CHIEF, the only private membership network focused on connecting and supporting women executive leaders, and she is a licensed producer in life, accident, and health insurance in multiple states across the country.

Kari is active in volunteer work and throughout her career has received professional recognition and several community awards, including being named one of the 2024 Top 50 Influential Women in Captive Insurance by Captive International, 2024 US Captive Review Captive Service Professional of the Year Shortlist, the Triad Business Journal's 2021 Most Outstanding CEO Award, the 2019 Outstanding Women in Business Award, 2005 iWoman Mentor Award, and 2004 Indy's Best and Brightest Finalist Award.
